

Cashmere, everyday luxury

Design Enzo Berti

Everyday luxury, fascinating proposals for bathroom chiseled in marble.

Cashmere is a refined washbasin where the oval shape of the basin has been extended to become a surface for functional and ornamental objects; it is like a creative twist that makes it unique.

The sinuosity of the shape compares with a magnificent marble that gives Cashmere a rare expressive power.

The marble substance has emphasized the basin aesthetic and the shape gives the lightness, and by the veins game. It is like a color bloom of harmonious shades.

It is available in various other kinds of marbles. Cashmere is a velvety touch washbasin that has been proposed leaning against wooden or marble top, or on a marble console or in freestanding version.

This proposal fits both for Contract and for Home.

PRODUCT DETAILS

Name: Cashmere

Design: Enzo Berti

Company: Kreoo

Brief description:

Everyday luxury, fascinating bathroom proposals shaped with precious marble.

Cashmere is a refined washbasin where the oval shape of the basin has been extended to become a surface for functional and ornamental objects; it is like a creative twist that makes it unique. The sinuosity of the shape compares with a magnificent marble that gives Cashmere a rare expressive power.

This proposal fits both for Contract and for Home.

Sizes: width cm 80 x 20 cm high

Materials: news: Brown Onyx and White Onyx. Other advised materials: White Estremoz, Bianco Calacatta, Grey Saint Marie and Black Marquina

